III. WRITTEN STATEMENTS

Your Senior Questionnaire and Parent Assessment are the final pieces to your College & Scholarship Recommendation (CSRF) packet. The Senior Questionnaire and Parent Assessment questions are found on the following pages, but should be completed on separate sheets of paper and attached to the packet.

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION WILL NOT BE WRITTEN WITHOUT ALL OF THE ABOVE REQUESTED INFORMATION.

Parent Assessment

Please type information on a separate piece of paper and include answers to all questions.

NAME OF STUDENT (please print) _____

1. What do you consider to be the outstanding accomplishments of your child during the past three or four years? Why did you select these as most important?
2. If you had to describe your son/daughter in six adjectives, what would they be?
3. Please elaborate on the previous question by telling a story of how your child demonstrated at least one, preferably more, of these adjectives. As with all these questions, continue on the back or on another paper.
4. In what areas has your child shown the most development and growth during the past three or four years?
5. Are there any unusual circumstances that have affected your child's educational or personal experiences?

Signature: _____ Relationship: _____

Date: _____ Email: _____

Senior Questionnaire

Please type information on a separate piece of paper and include answers to all questions.

Name: _____

1. Describe any significant role or leadership positions.
2. Describe any significant or special travel or living experiences/camp or if you lived in a different locality.
3. Do you have any hobbies, special interests or special talents not mentioned previously?
4. List your three most distinguishing, most admirable qualities. Explain each with several sentences including examples. Think about those aspects of yourself you would like your recommendation letter to stress.
5. Describe the single academic accomplishments (major paper, science project or experiment, artistic project or accomplishments) of which you are most proud and tell why you take special pride in it.
6. Has any summer activity, work, or study been of significant experience to you? Please describe.

Senior Questionnaire (Continued)

7. Is your high school academic record an accurate measure of your ability and potential? If not, what do you consider the best measure of your potential for success in college?

8. What circumstances, if any, have interfered with your academic performance?

9. Is there any other information you would like to share so that your recommendation writer can make an accurate appraisal of you to colleges and universities? You may write such things as cultural background, family, unusual circumstances, hardships or any special challenge, etc., that has a significant impact on your own interests and concerns. Continue on a separate sheet if necessary.

10. Is it okay for your high school to share with colleges your answers to previous 3 questions? Yes_ No_
